May 3. of Miss Lillian Welsh and Mr. Ulrich F. Williner, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Welsh, 1613 West Ann street, was one of the prettiest weddings which Kansas City, Kas., society has witnessed this spring. The bride is a favorite in social circles and the groom is the son of Mr. C. F. Williner, and holds a prominent position in the business world.

Two hundred invitations were Issued for the event, and Mrs. Welsh's home, beautifully decorated with paims, Illies and Illacs, was filled with interested friends when, at $230 o'clock, the prelude which Mr. Kreiser was playing melted into the triumphant strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the bridal party slowly descended the stairs, preceded by eight young girls, clad in pink, blue, Illac and green. They carried a chain of Illacs, with which they formed an aisle for the bridal party.

Miss Nellie Willner, sister of the groom, and Miss Edith Welsh, sister of the bride, were the bridesmaids, and were followed by Miss Eva Welsh, the maid of honor. The bride walked alone, and was met at the altar by the groom and his attendant, Mr. Wilbur Trader. The ceremony was performed under an arch of palms and Illies, by the Rev. Mr. Woerr, of San Jose, Cal., the bride was charmingly attired in cream silk mull and worker wells.

The invited guests were:

sisted by the ladies of the different committees.
